RESEARCH IN PROGRESS IN ENDOCRINOLOGY – 2017

This activity is obligatory for the students and researchers of the Program of Endocrinology at the University of Vigo.

The objective of the activity is the follow-up of the research projects linked to the doctoral thesis. It will consist in the public presentation by each doctoral student of the progress in their research work for up to 10 minutes. Next the professor/directors will ask any question, suggestion or discuss any methodological issue with the student for 5 additional minutes. Those students recently admitted in the calls 2016-17 and 2017-18 of the doctorate program should present just the thesis project at present development.

The public defense and discussion of the research projects will be considered for releasing the annual report of the progress of each doctoral student. This report should be signed by the director/supervisor of the thesis and validated by the coordinator of the doctorate program at the UVigo or the academic secretary of the CAPD.

The official languages for this edition will be either Spanish or English. Next edition will encourage the use of the English as the current communication language in biomedical sciences.
